
Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction: Media Literacy: Finding a Foothold in the English Classroom Scott Sullivan	xiii
Copyright, Fair Use, and Classroom Media Production Scott Sullivan	xxi
NCTE/IRA Standards	xxv
Companion Disk Directory	xxvii
I. Getting Started: “When Was I Supposed to Learn That?” Scott Sullivan	1
1. Capturing the Pulitzer Prize Photo: An Exercise in Photo Manipulation Belinha S. De Abreu	7
2. Snapshot Stories Louis Mazza	15
3. Vocabulary Media Journals: Finding Multimedia to Define Words William Kist	23
4. Building Active Viewing Skills: An Occurrence at Owl Creek Bridge Mark Dolce	30
5. Video Themes: An Introduction to Composing with Images David L. Bruce	37
6. Truly an iMovie: Composing Video Diaries Stephen Murphy	45
II. Media and Literature: Read It, Watch It, Analyze It, Shoot It Mary T. Christel	53

7. Visualizing the Literary Text Using Storyboards and Basic Cinematic Techniques	57
Neil Rigler, Carol Porter-O'Donnell, and Thomas O'Donnell
8. Video Games as a Tool for In-Depth Plot Analysis	65
Nili Friedman
9. Analyzing Epic Patterns of The Odyssey in Contemporary Films	72
Jacqueline Cullen
10. All about Emma : Using Multiple Film Adaptations to Teach Literary Elements	79
Elizabeth Kenney
11. Reading Graphic Novels: An Approach to Spiegelman's Maus	87
Kathleen Turner
12. Creating Video Poetry	97
David Bengtson
13. Turning Text into Movie Trailers: The Romeo and Juliet iMovie Experience	105
Scott Williams
III. Media and Popular Culture: Watching The Simpsons Can Make Me Smarter?	111
Mary T. Christel
14. Reflections of Society in Film: From Citizen Kane to Erin Brockovich	115
Jane Freiburg Nickerson
15. Teaching Nontraditional Film Narrative: Reversal of Fortune's Reversal of Convention	124
Cynthia Lucia
16. Unpacking the Popular Music Package: Analyzing the Production, Impact, and Potential of the Music Industry	134
Karen Ambrosh
17. So, You Want to Be a Pop Star? Examining Corporate Control in the Music Industry	142
Kate Glass and Rich Clark

18. Reading Reality Television: Cultivating Critical Media Literacy Kevin Howley	148
19. Video Game Vigilance: Applying Critical Thinking to Video Games Angela Paradise	156
20. Viewing Violence Critically: Examining Conflict in Media and Day-to-Day Life Erica Scharrer, Leda Cooks, and Mari Castañeda Paredes	164
IV. Media and Persuasion: Techniques, Forms, and Construction Scott Sullivan	173
21. Filling in the Big Picture: Understanding Media Economics Stephanie A. Flores-Koulish	177
22. I Ate the Ad: Media Literacy and the Marketing of Junk Food Frank W. Baker	185
23. Inadequacy Illustrated: Decoding Teen Magazine Covers Brian Turnbaugh	193
24. From Sammy Sosa to City Hall: Detecting Bias in Print News Jason Block	201
25. Deconstructing Broadcast News Charles F. Trafford	210
26. Video News Releases: When Is News Really News? Denise Sevick Bortree	218
27. Creating a Public Service Announcement: Powerful Persuasion in 60 Seconds Laura L. Brown	225
Index	233
Editors	243
Contributors	245
